Teachers Tell Us

"This was a fun and engaging assignment...my students feel that they have a real audience..."

"Thank you so much for providing this wonderful, real-world writing opportunity for my students."

"Watching the attitudes of my 8th grade students change about poetry has been one of the most exciting things I've done all year."

"Your contest motivated many of my most hesitant writers to pick up a pen and let the words flow. My students are now excited about writing and enjoy sharing their work with one another..."

"Thank you for sponsoring such a worthwhile and motivational contest for our children."

"Just Dance"

Away from the fears, the anger and sorrow.
Away from this world where there's no tomorrow.
Away from the questions of why and why not.
Away from the things that I nearly forgot.
As the music pumps, my mind goes blank.
I just start to move. I don't have to think.
No one can tell me what not to do.
I just forget all that I've been through.

"Just Dance" (continued)

Just move your body. Just take a chance.
Just take the risks. Just do the dance.
Just dance, just dance, just take a chance.
Just dare the tides and do the dance.

No one can touch me when I'm one with the sound.
There's no one but me when I'm dancing around.
Dancing is my heart and soul.
When I'm dancing, I play a different role.
When I'm dancing it's like I'm in a trance.
I can do anything. I can be anything.
When I dance.

Just move your body. Just take the chance.

Just take the risks. Just do the dance.

Just dance, just dance, just take a chance.

Just dare the tides and do the dance.

“Little Miss Country Girl”

She grew up, a little city girl
Dreaming of sharing her voice with the world
She sang and she sang her little heart out
There were no problems, not even doubt
And she was ready...

CHORUS

To go, out of this world and onto the stage

She didn't care about her age

She wanted her dream

And she wanted it now

She wanted the world to stand up and bow

She had a good voice that was out of this world

She wanted to be...

Little Miss Country Girl

One day when she was out and about
She came upon a talent scout
He saw potential and she was good
He told her about a place called Hollywood
She packed her bags
And said her goodbyes
She took a plane over night
She went...

CHORUS

Out of this world and onto the stage

She didn't care about her age

She wanted her dream

And she wanted it now

She wanted the world to stand up and bow

She had a good voice that was out of this world

She wanted to be...

Little Miss Country Girl, Little Miss Country Girl...

Now She...

Lives in Hollywood and tours the world

Still at heart, is Little Miss Country Girl...

“I’m A Four-Wheelin’ Man”

1ST VERSE

I’m down on my farm
Where I ride through the fields.
Bouncing-bumping-
Darting here and there.
The wind stings my face, my arms, and blows my hair.
Nothing will ever hinder my ride
Since I’m a Four-Wheelin’ man.

"I'm A Four-Wheelin' Man" (continued)

CHORUS

I'm a four-wheelin' man.

I'm running wild and free.

Roaming around for all of the world to see.

I can't get enough, I can't get enough

'Cause I'm running wild and free.

2ND VERSE

I grab my pole and my tackle box.

Racing down to the ole fishing hole

Line goes in – cork goes down.

Out comes a perch just splashing around.

Oh No! Watch Out!

The huge, green gator is coming on out.

He wants to roam, like me, just wild and free.

CHORUS

I'm a four-wheelin' man.

I'm running wild and free.

Roaming around for all of the world to see.

I can't get enough, I can't get enough

'Cause I'm a four-wheelin' man.

3RD VERSE

While riding around

On my Sportsman 500

My favorite thing – Mudding

It's calling my name.

Splashing, sputtering, spitting too.

3RD VERSE (continued)

Being stuck in the mud means flooring it through.

Mud's a flyin' and covering my Sportsman 500

I'm at peace with the world

Since I'm a Four-Wheelin' man.

CHORUS

I'm a four-wheelin' man.

I'm running wild and free.

Roaming around for all of the world to see.

I can't get enough, I can't get enough

'Cause I'm a four-wheelin' man.

BRIDGE

Oh these trips to the farm are so special to me.

Being outside with nature helps me to feel loose and free.

I'm just a sittin' on my four-wheeler pickin' cotton off my shirt.

Looking around and wonderin' what's going to come up next in that rich, dark dirt.

Not only is it fun to be outside with my dad and my Pops,

But being a four-wheelin' man means being top-notched.

Re: Song Lyric Entries for 2007

Dear Mr. Lyman Carter and Associates:

Wow! I don't know how to express what this year has meant to me! We were the Grand Prize Winners of the 2006 contest and were rewarded with a concert from Cheyenne Kimball and many fantastic prizes! My students were overwhelmed with excitement and pride--life had taken an unexpected and fantastic bend in their road! For me, it meant the affirmation of a job I do everyday.
